Planning Holiday

Travelling

1. Vocabulary descriptions.

Read the descriptions of some things you take to your holiday. The first letter is already there. There is some space for each other letter in the word.

Example: a small official book that proves who you are.

p a s s p o r t

1. A temporary home used for camping, which is made of cloth.

t _ _ _

2. A piece of plastic that you use to make your hair tidy.

c _ _ _

3. A large warm bag, in which you can spend a night.

s _ _ _ _ _ _ _ b _ _

4. A small brush for cleaning your teeth.

t _ _ _ _ b _ _ _ _

5. A substance that you use to wash yourself with.

s _ _ _

2. Jumbled dialogue

Complete the dialogue between two friends, Alex and Bernard. The first sentence is in bold.

	A	Are they going on holiday?
1	A	Come on – show me the picture.
	A	That sounds great! What about your bicycle?
	A	The programme is up to us but we have to come up with some activities for the other campers. I'm going to bring some board games.
	A	Well, I'll tell you, but don't tell to anyone else! Next month I'm going to be taking a windsurfing course.
	A	Yes, I'm really looking forward to it. And guess what? We are going to sleep in a tent and cook food on the fire. And there isn't even a TV!
	B	Ok, look! This is my uncle and aunt, here, next to the caravan.
	B	We're going to rent one there. Can you imagine that? I'm going to ride a bike round Loch Ness. And what about you?
	B	Well, promise me we'll stay in touch.
	B	Windsurfing? Great!
	B	Yes, they're going to take the caravan to Scotland. And do you know what? I'm going with them!
	B	You are kidding! What are you going to do in the evenings then?
