2. Jumbled dialogue

Complete the conversation between a tourist and a Londoner. The first sentence is in bold.

	L	Right. And at the end of the lake if you look up you will see the cabins of the London eye.
	L	OK then. The best way is to walk over the crossroad and you'll see the park right in front of you.
	L	Exactly. You will see Buckingham Palace on your right-hand side.
	L	This is Hyde Park.
	L	Sure, the best way is to take the tube from here straight to Waterloo Station.
	L	Yes, how can I help you?
	L	Yes, exactly. Keep going there and then you have an artificial lake on your right-hand side. You've never heard of it? It was created during the King James I reign. You've never heard of pelicans there, they are very well known.
1	T	Excuse me, Sir?
	T	I don't want to travel by tube. I don't think I can find my way there.
	T	I read about it in a magazine. So, I walk along the lake and make sure to check out the pelicans. S:
	T	Oh, I see. I need to get to the London Eye. Can you show me the way?
	T	Ok, you mean where the queen lives?
	T	Well, I think I've lost my way. Which park is this?
	T	You mean I should follow this way and then the straight one?

3. Cross out the word that doesn't belong in each group. How is this word different?
